PROFILE

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

D.K. College, Jaleswar

1. About the Department

The Department of Political Science is committed to providing quality education in Political Science and developing among students a sound understanding of political institutions, constitutional values, governance, democracy, human rights and contemporary political issues. The department encourages students to develop critical thinking, analytical skills, leadership qualities and responsible citizenship.

2. Vision

"To develop informed, responsible and socially conscious citizens with a strong understanding of democracy, constitutional values, governance and political processes."

3. Mission

- To provide quality education in Political Science.
- To develop critical, analytical and independent thinking among students.
- To promote awareness of democracy, fundamental rights and constitutional values.
- To encourage students to participate actively in social and academic activities.
- To develop leadership, communication and research skills.
- To prepare students for higher education, competitive examinations and responsible citizenship.

4. Programmes Offered

Undergraduate Programme (UG) – B.A in Political Science

Political Science as a Major/Minor/General subject, as applicable under the college/university curriculum.

- The department provides students with a comprehensive understanding of political theory, Indian government and politics, international relations, public administration, constitutional studies and contemporary political issues.
- The department also facilitates students in preparing for higher studies and competitive examinations.

5. Faculty Members

1. Mrs. Lukhi Tudu(Head of the Department)

   Designation: Lecturer in Political Science

2. Mr. Ratikanta Mishra

   Designation: Lecturer in Political Science

3. Mr. Sagar Murmu

Designation: Lecturer in Political Science

6. Facilities

The department provides/uses various academic facilities for effective teaching and learning, including:

- Well-equipped classrooms
- College library and learning resources
- Internet facilities
- Seminar/workshop facilities
- Departmental academic resources
- Access to e-learning materials
- Facilities for student discussions, presentations and group activities

7. Research and Publications

The department encourages faculty members and students to engage in academic research and scholarly activities. Faculty members are encouraged to contribute through:

- Research papers and publications
- Seminars and conferences
- Workshops and academic discussions
- Research-oriented student activities
- Study of contemporary political and social issues
- Participation in academic and professional development programmes

8. Students' Activities

The department promotes active participation of students in curricular and co-curricular activities such as:

- Seminars and group discussions
- Quiz and debate competitions
- Essay and poster competitions
- Awareness programmes
- Electoral literacy and voter-awareness activities
- Human rights and constitutional awareness programmes
- Social outreach activities
- Workshops and invited lectures
- Educational tours and field-based activities
- Celebration of important national and international days

9. Future Planning

- Launch a postgraduate Program (M.A in Political Science)
- The department aims to strengthen its academic and research activities through:
- Organising more seminars, workshops and guest lectures.
- Encouraging students to undertake research projects.
- Promoting publications by faculty and students.
- Developing stronger ICT-based teaching and learning practices.
- Conducting awareness programmes on democracy, human rights and constitutional values.

- Providing career guidance and competitive-examination support.
- Encouraging students to participate in inter-college academic activities.
- Establishing academic collaborations and inviting experts from different fields.
- Strengthening community engagement and extension activities.

Departmental Motto

"Knowledge • Democracy • Leadership • Responsible Citizenship"