

Department of English, Dinakrushna College, Jaleswar

PROFILE

The Department of English at Dinakrushna College, Jaleswar, has been a vibrant cornerstone of humanities education, dedicated to fostering linguistic proficiency, critical thinking, and a deep appreciation for global and Indian literatures in English. With a balanced emphasis on theoretical literary analysis, communicative skills, and cultural studies, the department continually adapts to meet the evolving academic, professional, and societal needs of its students.

Vision

To cultivate linguistic excellence and critical literary acumen among students, empowering them to think independently, communicate effectively, and contribute meaningfully to society through humanistic values and global perspectives.

Mission

- To deliver quality education in English language and literature by integrating classical literary traditions with contemporary discourse.
- To encourage critical thinking, analytical reasoning, and innovative approaches to textual interpretation and creative expression.
- To equip students with advanced communication, soft skills, and digital literacy tools for academic progression and diverse career opportunities.

Programs Offered

1. Undergraduate Program: B.A. in English (Honours & General)

- Comprehensive curriculum covering British Literature, Indian Writing in English, Literary Theory, American Literature, and Linguistics.
- Emphasis on communicative English, translation studies, and practical soft skills development.

2. Add-on and Skill Development Courses:

- Certificate courses in Spoken English, Professional Writing, and Business Communication.
- Workshops on Content Writing, Creative Writing, and Academic Editing.

Faculty Members

1. Sri. Jayanta Kumar Sethi

- Designation: Reader in English (HOD)
- Specialization: American literature & African Literature
- Additional Roles: Library in charge
- Email: jayantakumarsethi645@gmail.com

2. Miss Priyadarshani Kar

- Designation: Lecturer in English
- Specialization: Indian Writing in English & Linguistics
- Email: priyadarshanikar7205@gmail.com

3. Mr. Baladev Khamari

- Designation: Lecturer in English
- Specialization: British literature and literary theory and criticism
- Email: khamaribaladev2@gmail.com

Facilities

- Language Lab: Equipped with modern audio-visual technology and language software to support pronunciation, listening comprehension, and fluency training.
- Departmental Library: Rich collection of classical and contemporary literature textbooks, reference books, literary journals, and critical guides.

Research and Publications

The department promotes a research-oriented environment.

- Postcolonial and Subaltern Literary Studies
- Gender Studies and Indian Writings in Translation
- Comparative Literature and Language Teaching Methodologies (ELT)

Student Activities

- Competitions: Regular organization of literary quizzes, debate competitions, essay writing, and national seminar presentations.
- Workshops and Training: Hands-on workshops on creative writing, public speaking, soft skills development, and literary appreciation.
- Publications: Annual departmental wall magazine and newsletter showcasing creative student articles, poems, and critical essays.

Future Plans

- Launch a postgraduate program (M.A. in English).
- Establish a dedicated Language & Communication Resource Center for advanced studies.
- Host national and international conferences, webinars, and literary workshops.

The Department of English, Dinakrushna College, Jaleswar, remains committed to nurturing intellectual curiosity and preparing students for academic and professional challenges, ensuring they excel in their chosen careers and make meaningful contributions to society.