GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL MECHANISM

i. There should be a Grievances Redressal Cell with the Dean (Student Welfare) / Teacher in charge of student affairs as its chairman. In addition, one senior faculty member, one senior administrative officer and two final year students – one boy and one girl (students can be nominated on the basis of merit and/or participation in the co-curricular activities in the previous year). The grievance cell shall be mandated with the redressal of election-related grievances, including, but not limited to breaches of the code of conduct of elections and complaints relating to election-related expenditure. This cell would be the regular unit of institution.

ii. In pursuit of its duties, the grievance cell may prosecute violators of any aspect of the code of conduct or the rulings of the grievance cell. The grievance cell shall serve as the court of original jurisdiction. The institutional head shall have appellate jurisdiction over issues of law and fact in all cases or controversies arising out of the conduct of the elections in which the grievance cell has issued a final decision. Upon review, the institutional head may revoke or modify the sanctions imposed by the grievance cell.

iii. In carrying out the duties of the office, the Grievance cell shall conduct proceedings and hearings necessary to fulfil those duties. In executing those duties, they shall have the authority:

   a. to issue a written notice/summons requiring candidates, their agents or workers to appear before the Grievance Cell, give evidence, and produce relevant records/documents, as required.

   b. to inspect the financial reports of any candidate and make these records available for public scrutiny upon request.

iv. Student members of the Grievance cell are prohibited from filing complaints. Any other student may file a complaint with the Grievance cell, within a period of 3 weeks from the date of declaration of results. All complaints must be filed under the name of the student filing the complaint. The Grievance cell shall act on all complaints within 24 hours after they are received by either dismissing them or calling a hearing.

v. The Grievance cell may dismiss a complaint, if:

   a. the complaint was not filed within the time frame prescribed in Recommendation (iv) above;

   b. the complaint fails to state a cause of action for which relief may be granted;

   c. the complainant has not and / or likely will not suffer injury or damage.

vi. If a complaint is not dismissed, then a hearing must be held. The Grievance cell shall inform, in writing, or via e-mail, the complaining party and all individuals or groups named in the complaint of the time and place of the hearing. The parties are not considered notified until they have received a copy of the complaint.

vii. The hearing shall be held at the earliest possible time, but within twenty-four (24) hours after receipt of the notice described above, unless all parties agree to waive the 24-hour time constraint.

viii. At the time notice of a hearing is issued, the Grievance cell, by majority vote, may issue a temporary restraining order, if it determines that such action is necessary to prevent undue or adverse effects on any individual or entity. Any restraining order, once issued, will remain in effect until a decision of the Grievance cell is announced after the hearing or until rescinded by the Grievance cell.

ix. All Grievance cell hearings, proceedings, and meetings must be open to the public.

x. All Parties of the Grievance cell hearing shall present themselves at the hearing, may be accompanied by any other student from which they can receive counsel, and have the option to be represented by that counsel.

xi. For any hearing, a majority of sitting Grievance cell members must be in attendance with the Chair of the Grievance cell presiding. In the absence of the Chair, the responsibility to preside shall fall to a Grievance cell member designated by the Chair.

xii. The Grievance cell shall determine the format for the hearing, but must require that both the complaining and responding parties appear physically before the board to discuss the issues through a complaint, answered, rebuttal, and rejoinder format. The purpose of the hearing is to gather the information necessary to make a decision, order, or ruling that will resolve an election dispute. To effectuate this purpose, the following rules should prevail at all hearings:

   (a) Complaining parties shall be allowed no more than two witnesses, however the Grievance cell may call witnesses as required. If said witnesses are unable to appear at the hearing, signed affidavits may be submitted the Grievance Cell Chair for the purpose of testifying by proxy.

(b) All questions and discussions by the parties in dispute shall be directed to the Grievance cell.

(c) There shall be no direct or cross-examination of any party or witness by complaining or responding parties during hearings.

(d) Reasonable time limits may be set by the Grievance cell, provided they give fair and equal treatment to both sides.

(e) The complaining party shall bear the burden of proof.

(f) Decisions, orders, and rulings of the Grievance cell must be concurred to by a majority of the Grievance cell present and shall be announced as soon as possible after the hearing. The Grievance cell shall issue a written opinion of the ruling within 12 hours of announcement of the decision.

The written opinion must set forth the findings of fact by the Grievance cell and the conclusions of law in support of it. Written opinions shall set a precedent for a time period of three election cycles for Grievance cell rulings, and shall guide the Grievance cell in its proceedings.

Upon consideration of prior written opinions, the grievance cell may negate the decision, but must provide written documentation of reasons for doing so.

(g) If the decision of the Grievance cell is appealed to the institutional head, the Grievance cell must immediately submit its ruling to the commission.

(h) The Grievance cell shall select the remedy or sanction most appropriate to both the type and severity of the infraction, as well as the state of mind or intent of the violator as determined by the Grievance cell. Possible remedies and sanctions include, but are not limited to, fines, suspension of campaigning privileges, and disqualification from the election.

(i) Any fine or total amount of fines against a candidate in an election cycle may not exceed the spending limit as defined herein above.

(j) If, after a hearing, the Grievance cell finds that provisions of this Code were violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agents or, workers, the Grievance cell may restrict the candidate, or the candidate's agents or workers, from engaging in some or all campaign activities for some or all of the remainder of the campaign. If an order is issued covering only part of the remaining period, it shall take effect immediately so that after its termination, the candidate will have an opportunity to resume campaigning during the days immediately prior to and including the election days.

(k) If, after a hearing, the Grievance cell finds that provisions of either this Code or decisions, opinions, orders, or rulings of the Grievance cell have been willfully and blatantly violated by a candidate, or a candidate's agents or workers, the Grievance cell may disqualify the candidate.

(l) Any party adversely affected by a decision of the Grievance cell may file an appeal with the institutional head within twenty-four (24) hours after the adverse decision is announced. The institutional head shall have discretionary appellate jurisdiction over the Grievance cell in all cases in which error on the part of the Grievance cell is charged.

(m) The decision of the Grievance cell shall stand and shall have full effect until the appeal is heard and decided by the institutional head.

(n) The institutional head shall hear appeals of Grievance cell rulings as soon as possible, but not within twenty-four (24) hours after the Grievance cell delivers to the Appellant and the institutional head a copy of its written opinion in the case. Appeal may be heard prior to this time, but only if the Appellant waives the right to a written opinion and the institutional head agrees to accept the waiver.

(o) The institutional head can issue suitable orders to suspend or halt the operation of the ruling issued by the Grievance cell until the appeals are decided.

(p) The institutional head shall review findings of the Grievance cell when appealed. The institutional head may affirm or overturn the decision of the Grievance cell, or modify the sanctions imposed.

xiii. It may be noted that: -

"Where the atmosphere of the university/College campus is adverse to the conduct of peaceful, free and fair elections, the university, its constituent colleges and departments must initiate a system of student representation based on nominations, especially where elections are being held at present. It would be advisable, however, not to base such nomination system on purely academic merit, as is being practised throughout the country."

The Vice-Chancellor and Principals may note the above observation of the Supreme Court. They may take into consideration the assessment of Staff Committee/PG Council as the case may be, and take a decision on a case to case basis to take decision to follow the nomination option during 2026-27, rather than election, limiting to such cases of serious nature where conduct of election is not possible due to the atmosphere prevailing in such college/University.

xiv. Any instance of acute lawlessness or the commission of a criminal offence shall be reported to the police by the University/ College authorities as soon as possible, but not later than 6 hours after the alleged commission of the offence.

Additionally, the District Nodal Officers, appointed by the Higher Education Department vide Letter No. 50596 dated 21.09.2026, shall oversee and monitor the conduct of the Students' Union/Students' Association Election in the institutions falling under their respective jurisdictions and ensure adherence to the prescribed guidelines and election schedule.

All concerned are requested to ensure strict compliance with the above schedule and guidelines. This is for your kind information and necessary action.

Yours faithfully,
